Courts — Annual report.

16-10-108. Contempt.

CASE NOTES

Due Process.

Circuit court erred in holding an attorney in contempt for obtaining its signature on an amended judgment and commitment order by misrepresenting the state's approval and consent because a letter the circuit court addressed to the attorney provided adequate notice that a hearing would occur, but it did not give the attorney adequate notice that criminal contempt charges were pending against her; both Arkansas law and the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution were clear that the attorney was entitled to notice not only that the circuit court was investigating the possibility of her misrepresentation but also that it was considering holding her in criminal contempt for alleged misrepresentation. Bloodman v. State, 2010 Ark. 169, — S.W.3d — (2010).

16-10-119. Travel expenses of judges.

(a) From the appropriation provided to the Auditor of State for trial judges' expenses, a circuit judge is authorized to be reimbursed for those travel expenses at the rate as authorized for state employees and for mileage at the rate established in the state travel regulations for state employees while traveling within the state in the performance of their official duties.

(b) When a circuit judge is appointed by the Chief Justice to hear a case or cases in a jurisdiction outside of that in which he or she is elected, he or she shall be entitled to reimbursement for travel expenses and mileage as provided in subsection (a) of this section.

History. Acts 1993, No. 4, § 7; 1995, No. 3, § 5; 1997, No. 496, § 1; 2011, No. 274, § 2.

A.C.R.C. Notes. Acts 2011, No. 274, § 1, provided: "Legislative intent.

"(a) Arkansas Constitution, Amendment 80, § 13(C), provides that the Chief Justice of the Arkansas Supreme Court may appoint a special judge to serve in circuit court or district court whenever a judge is disqualified or temporarily unable to serve or when there is other need for a temporary appointment, under rules prescribed by the Supreme Court.

"(b) Special judges may include retired justices or judges, active circuit judges or district judges, or licensed attorneys.

"(c) The current laws that govern the payment of special judges have not been revised since the adoption of Amendment 80 and are in conflict and need of clarification."

Amendments. The 2011 amendment inserted "to the Auditor of State" in (a); and added (b).

16-10-127. Court interpreters.

CASE NOTES

Compliance.

Trial court complied with the standards regarding certification for foreign language interpreters in Arkansas courts in § 16-89-104(a) and this section as the standards established by the Arkansas courts expressly permitted a non-certified interpreter upon a finding that diligent and good faith efforts to obtain a certified interpreter were made and none had been found to be reasonably available. Diligent efforts were made to obtain a certified interpreter, and although the trial court was advised that there were no certification programs for the Kiti language, defendant was able to obtain the services of the interpreter at issue, who was certified and had experience as a Marshallese interpreter and also spoke Kiti. Ludrick v. State, 2011 Ark. App. 54, — S.W.3d — (2011), rehearing denied, — Ark. App. —, — S.W.3d —, 2011 Ark. App. LEXIS 170 (Mar. 2, 2011).

16-10-133. Trial court staff.

A.C.R.C. Notes. Acts 2011, No. 926, § 3, provided: "RATE OF PAY. The entry level salary of a trial court staff person shall be equal to that established in the state pay plan at grade C117."

Acts 2011, No. 926, § 4, provided: "CERTIFICATION. Any Trial Court Administrative Assistant who is or becomes certified by the National Center for State Courts as a certified Court Manager shall be entitled to have the annual salary for which he or she is eligible to be increased by ten percent (10%), which shall not exceed the maximum amount for the grade assigned.

"The provisions of this section shall be in effect only from July 1, 2011 through June 30, 2012.”

16-10-137. Administrative Office of the Courts — Annual report.

- 16-17-1112. Reorganization of local district courts to state district courts as of January 1, 2017.

16-17-1101. Legislative findings.

The General Assembly finds that:

(1) The goal expressed by Arkansas citizens with the adoption of Amendment 80 to the Arkansas Constitution was the creation of a three-tiered unified court system;

(2) The current structure of limited jurisdiction courts consists of a combination of full-time and part-time district and city courts funded by city and county governments;

(3) Based on availability of local resources, the cumulative effect of the creation and funding of those courts by local governments has been an unequal level of access to and an inequitable distribution of judicial services to communities;

(4) While Amendment 80 does not require the state to fund the district court system, there is a state interest in providing a more uniform level of judicial resources to all citizens of the state;

(5) Because the current system of limited jurisdiction courts is not uniform, it is contrary to the interest of the state to merely shift the funding of the system from local government to state government without addressing the structure of the district court system;

(6) A way of addressing the shortage of resources for circuit courts in some areas of the state is the expansion of the jurisdiction of the district court which will shift cases from circuit court to district court and reduce expenses for the state;

(7) A state-funded system should include an analysis by the state that furthers the goal of a unified and equitable system for the delivery of judicial services;

(8) The District Court Resource Assessment Board, created in § 16-17-1001 et seq., has studied the effectiveness of the state's creation of pilot district courts and found that they are successful in creating a more uniform and equitable judicial system, reducing the number of district and city court judges, maintaining the level of service to the communities served by district and city courts, allowing the shift of cases from circuit to district courts, decreasing the number of conflicts requiring the appointment of special judges, and improving public access to the court system;

(9) The state should continue the incremental creation of state district courts served by full-time judges and designate geographic districts that have sufficient caseloads to justify a full-time judge until the system is implemented and operating statewide on January 1, 2017; and

(10) For purposes of the program, cities and counties should keep one hundred percent (100%) of all their current revenue from fines and costs with the exception of the adjustment from the cost-sharing formula.

History. Acts 2007, No. 663, § 2; 2011, No. 1219, § 1.
